

Assassination Site President John F. Kennedy

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S ASSASSINATION SITE — DALLAS, TEXAS

Friday, November 22, 1963, the entire world was stunned when President John F. Kennedy was struck by two bullets from a high powered rifle. The shots were fired from the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository Building, allegedly by Lee Harvey Oswald. Mrs. Kennedy who was riding with her husband was not shot. Governor John B. Connally of Texas, riding in the jump seat in front of the President, was severely wounded.
